

Matthew 27
The Crucifixion

Outline:

1. Jesus is a loving king who laid down his life for his people.

- Delivered (1-2)
- Rejected (11-26)
- Mocked (27-31)
- Crucified (32-44)
- Forsaken (45-50)
- Heaven and Earth Responded (51-54)

2. Jesus is a loving King who has laid down his life for you.

3. How will you respond?

Discussion Questions:

- What stood out to you most in your personal study or the teaching from Matthew 27?
- Read Isaiah 53 and Psalm 22 and consider how the themes from this passage show up in Matthew 27.
- What scene or character in this passage do you connect with most and why?
- Why is it important that we understand the crucifixion story so personally?
- How might you need to d to Jesus as the King who loved you by laying down his life?