

"Good Soil"

Lesson 2—C

Mark 4:1-20

A farmer pulled seeds from his sack and threw them all around his field.

Some seeds fell onto the road. Hungry birds swooped down and ate them up!

Some seeds landed on rocky soil. The little plants didn't have enough dirt to grow.

Other seeds fell into thorny bushes. The plants couldn't see the sun. Soon they died.

But some seeds fell in good soil. They wiggled down into the soft, rich dirt. They drank up the spring rain and the summer sun. They grew—and grew—and grew!

"People are like plants," Jesus said. "Some listen to God's Word but they don't want to obey. They stop growing.

Other people keep obeying God. They grow and grow and grow."

They were terrified and asked each other, "Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!"
