Discussion Questions - Romans 15: 1-13

1. Have you received the good news of Jesus Christ as your lord and savior? Have you laid down your life, denied yourself and followed Him?

2. When you survey the freedoms we have in Christ and you take the time to evaluate your grip on them, what is your response? How do you live out these freedoms in your life and within the church body?

3. Regarding bearing with one another, and being the weaker or stronger sister how can we as a group grow in this area? Share an example of this that you have seen in your life. Maybe a time God carried you through something or maybe where God provided someone else to carry you through.

4. How much do you value God's word in your life? Try to answer honestly on this, if this is where we gain instruction and receive encouragement and endurance, are we drawing from it every day?

5. How are you at accepting others? Do you take steps towards others and give genuine love to every-one? Are we living to give God glory in all areas of our lives together and practicing a spirit of unity? What are some ideas on how we can grow in this together so all people can glorify God together?
