

How did the father feel when his son came home?

Use the first letter of the objects to find out what the father said.

He said . . . "let us _____ and

The older son was not happy. After all, he had stayed and worked hard for his father. He had not wasted his inheritance.

The father said . . .

"Son, you are _____ with me, and _____ that is _____ is yours. But we had to and _____, because this

_____ of yours was

_____ and has come to _____;

he was _____ and has been _____

Name _____