

Disability Inclusion Ministry Intern

The Grove's Disability Inclusion Ministry exists to create an environment and community where people and families impacted by disabilities can be introduced to Jesus and transformed by him. The Ministry Intern position is designed to give hands-on experience and cultivate competence in a broad range of disability inclusion ministry responsibilities. As a part of the Disability Inclusion ministry team, the intern plays a significant role in strategizing as well as assessing and evaluating disability inclusion ministry initiatives. While in this role, the individual will be trained and equipped for future leadership in ministry or another setting.
